We well anticipated the demand fashion would create for light weight materials suitable for

It was only a prediction, but now it is an established fact that SHIRTAIST SUITS will be the most popular for spring wear, and that MOHAIRS AND SICILIANS, which are so well adapted for this purpose, will be more extensively used than ever before in their history.

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN CRAW.

On Tuesday night Pat Rhody and Price Bromley became involved in a difficulty in the course of which Rhody fired five shots at Bromley, one ball cutting through his clothing on the left side. Rhody was arrested and lodged in jail.

RECTIFIERS SUED.

A large number of Louisville rectifiers have been sued in the State Fiscal Court of this county for $2,500 each, for failing to pay the tax of 50 cents on each barrel of spirits rectified, as required by the act of the last Legislature.

REPRESENTATIVE SUED.

Mr. E. K. Rennaker, Representative from Harrison county, has been sued by Miss Bessie Whittaker, a pretty Harrison county school teacher, for $25,000 damages for defamation of character. The suit is a great sensation at Cynthiana.

COMING TO THIS CITY.

Our young and handsome friend, Dr. L. T. Minish, will move his family to this city from Harvieland next week. He has rented one of Mr. W. H. Posey's cozy cottages on Todd street.

His office will be on St. Clair street, over the drug store of Dr. W. McKee Hardie.

Dr. Minish is a very fine physician and will be an acquisition to the medical fraternity of the city.

His wife is a pretty and stylish young lady, and one very well calculated to make herself and her husband popular members of society.

We welcome these good people to our city.

ELECTED PRESIDENT.

We are gratified to learn that at the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A., held at Owensboro last week, our friend and brother, Mr. John L. Amsden, of Versailles, was elected President. Mr. Amsden is an able and consecrated man, who has given largely of time and labor for the cause of Sunday-schools and Y. M. C. A. work.

RE-ELECTED.

At the meeting of Hardware Dealers of Kentucky, held in Louisville last week, Mr. John R. Sower, of this city, was unanimously re-elected Secretary of that body. A deserved compliment to a worthy young man.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

SOLD HIS FARM.

Mr. John Callery has sold his farm, located about a mile from the city limits, on the Versailles pike, containing 100 acres, to Mr. Pat O'Brien, of Woodford county, for $5,000 cash.

This farm is admirably located for a dairy or market garden farm.

CUTTING SUNDAY MORNING.

A dance at the house of Joe Handy, on Wilkinson street, Saturday night, which extended over until Sunday morning, wound up with a row in which A. J. Douhitt cut Wm. Blockhart in the head, side and leg, neither wound proving serious.

All parties were arrested by Officers Brown and White.

MINISTERS HOLDING PRAYER-MEETINGS.

The Ministers Association of this city are holding daily prayer-meetings in the Pastor's study of the First Baptist Church, to pray that God would send down his Holy Spirit and cause a general revival of religion in this city. They earnestly desire the prayers of all Christians in this behalf.

VERY PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

Capital Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., gave an entertainment Monday night, consisting of a recitation and characterization of "David and Jonathan." It was a very pleasant affair. Mr. Newton Beers' rendering was very good, and was heartily enjoyed by the audience which completely filled the main hall of this order in Odd Fellows Temple.

DeWitt's Witch Salvo For Piles, Burns, Sores.

SIDE-LIGHTS ON A PUBLIC OFFICE.

Henry A. Castle, Auditor of the Postoffice Department, taps strange veins of human nature in the conduct of his office. "Careless, Ignorant, and Defiant Postmasters," contributed by him to the March McClure's, is a collection of the queer fetsms caught in the web of the red tape. From a Texas town a courteous citizen sent this mild protest against the too strutting manners of the "lady postmistress."

"We don't set up any claim that our manners are all they should be, but we'd like to be reasoned with and helped along. The postmistress here is a worthy woman, all right, but she certainly is rude and hasty. One day last week, the mayor being some flushed up and careless, refused to move his hat and bow on asking for the official mail, whereupon his hat was shot off and plumb ruined. There's another thing we don't think is fair. This postmistress won't let niggers and greasers come into the office under any consideration. We ain't over fond of niggers and greasers ourselves, but it is sure discommoding for the leading citizens to have to go to the postoffice personally to get their mail, just because this lady don't like to see anything but a gentleman. We don't like to appear fault-finding and picaresque where a lady is concerned, but this one I'm talking about is sure arbitrary and abrupt, and we'd like to have her toned down some."

CASITORIA.

APPOINTED CONSTABLE.

Mr. Zack Pulliam has been appointed Constable of the Bald Knob District, to succeed Mr. L. W. Shackelford, resigned.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drug stores.

DISTRICT PRIMARY CALLED.

The Democratic District Committee of this Circuit Court District has called a primary election to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge, to be held on Wednesday, April 5th.

Judge R. L. Stout is the only announced candidate so far.

The counties composing the district are Bourbon, Franklin, Scott and Woodford.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S FIRE.

An alarm from box 25, at 7:55 p. m., on Sunday, called the fire boys to a frame cottage on Church street, owned by Mr. Thos. Heffner. The house is not a very valuable one and the roof was badly damaged by the flames. The loss was covered by insurance.

The building was formerly used for and known as "Greenwood Seminary," but was moved to its present location.

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY.

The 82d anniversary of the Franklin County Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening, February 26, at 7:30 o'clock. The Executive Committee is as follows: F. V. Gray, W. G. Simpson, Walter G. Chapman, Oscar Kenney. The Society's aim is to make the Holy Bible, without note or comment, accessible to all classes of people at the lowest rates. Its work is unsectarian. The benefactions of this society are not limited by any distinctions of property, of social position, of denominational ties or of race, but the chief responsibility resting upon the board is to see that to the poor the gospel is preached through the circulation of the Written Word.

SUGGESTION.

"Health Food and Health Cranks" is the leading articles in the March issue of Suggestion, the magazine of the New Psychology (Chicago); other articles relate to auto suggestion, psychic research, nature cure, drugless methods, suggestive therapeutics, hygiene, advanced thought, etc. This publication is of especial interest to those who believe that man has inherent psychic powers which if rightly used will banish worry, fear, disease, increase the powers of mind and pave the way for the enjoyment of health, happiness and success.

The famous little pills.

APPOINTED.

Miss Katie Mayhall, of Bridgeport (daughter of Mr. Charles Mayhall), has been appointed teacher at the Institute for Feeble-Minded Children, to succeed Miss Lillian Thomson (now Mrs. Scott Brown), resigned.

COLLINS HEIRS WIN.

The heirs of Mr. Harrison Collins, formerly of this county (of whom Dr. J. S. Collins and Mr. Z. T. Collins are two), have won a suit in the Arkansas Court of Appeals whereby they become owners of about 2,000 acres of fine land.

The matter has been in litigation for a number of years. The land lies near Little Rock, Ark.

LITTLE LAD HURT.

While playing soldier Master Henry Bowles, son of Mr. Claude Bowles, Auditor of the F. & C. Railway, was shot in the foot with an air gun, though not serious.

SHERLOCK HOLMES—THE UNIVERSAL FAVORITE.

Probably no publisher's announcement of the year will bring more widespread satisfaction than that of McClure-Phillips that they will bring out Conan Doyle's "The Return of Sherlock Holmes" stories in the middle of February. Sherlock is a more universal favorite, without doubt, than any character ever created in fiction. He belongs to the library, to the kitchen, to the parlor floor, and to the attic. His name and what it stands for has become a part of the English language as certainly as Kodak, and it is certainly cherished closer to the heart. There is good reason, then, to believe that the opportunity of having the stories, which have been appearing in a weekly magazine throughout two years, in compact book form, with characteristic and impressive illustrations, will be hailed with joy by thousands upon thousands of people, many of whom are not usually considered in the reading class. People will find him the same old Sherlock—only more so; grown with his readers. The tangle of mystery in these thirteen stories is more intricate than ever before, yet the wizard Sherlock, inscrutable and intrepid, unravels the knot with magic deftness. His adventures are, indeed, amazing and blood-stirring. He adds many cubits to the stature of his reputation, and the world will thank Dr. Doyle for his daring act in resurrecting his beloved hero.

BERRY—In Oldham county, on Tuesday, Dr. J. T. Berry, aged 64 years.

STILL BETTER.

Recently we made mention of the good work being done by Prof. Sam'l L. Frogge, late of this city, as President of the Lindsay-Wilson Training School of Vanderbilt University, located at Columbia, Ky.

Since then we have learned that the attendance of the school is 255, exceeding that of last year by 65, and of that number 200 are new pupils. One hundred and twenty of these scholars board in the dormitories and some thirty in private families.

The outlook for the second term is even still better.

Prof. Frogge is a teacher of ability and fine education and possesses the happy faculty of knowing how to impart his knowledge to his pupils.

We wish him every success in his new field of labor.

While living here Mr. Cates, Sr., was a clerk in the old Branch Bank of Kentucky.

WILLIAM R. PATTIE

Famous Southern Tenor and Popular Former Frankfort Boy Comes to Capital Theatre With Faust's Superb Minstrels Monday, February 27.

Judging from the unusual interest that seems to have been aroused in the forthcoming engagement of Faust's Superb Minstrels, which come to Capital Theatre Monday, February 27, the theatre will hardly accommodate the loyal friends and acquaintances of popular Will Pattie, who claims Frankfort as his home, and whom the metropolitan press has accorded unstinted praise, referring to him as "the celebrated Southern Tenor."

The local lodge of Elks, of whom Mr. Pattie is a member, have arranged to entertain the members of the company after the show Monday evening in his honor, and it is a foregone conclusion that the antlered brethren will turn out in goodly numbers and attend the performance.

There is hardly a man, woman or child in Frankfort and Franklin county that does not know and esteem the friendship of clever and popular Will Pattie, and his friends in the city and county as well will undoubtedly embrace this opportunity to go and hear him sing and incidentally witness one of the finest minstrel shows that has ever visited Frankfort.

Don't fail to see the great parade at noon and hear the "Twilight Concert" at 7 o'clock in front of the theatre.

Don't delay another moment, but go to Barrett's or telephone your request for seats, as the house will undoubtedly be sold out before noon Monday. Prices, entire lower floor, $1.00; first two rows in balcony, 75 cents; balance balcony, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

STAMPING GROUND.

Misses Alma and Icy Tucker are visiting Miss Bridges, in Frankfort.

We had a unique preacher in our town Sunday night. He preached on "Fishing," at the Baptist Church. He is the Rev. J. W. Rowley, who styles himself "the highway and byway preacher."

The ladies Missionary Society of the Baptist Church gave a pleasant and profitable entertainment at the City Hall on Wednesday night, February 22.

Mr. W. B. Perry, aged 63 years, died very suddenly, on February 15, while engaged in feeding his stock in his barn. It is supposed that heart disease carried him off, as he was found lying on the barn floor on his face.

THAT TICKLING IN THE THROAT.

One minute after taking One Minute Cough Cure that tickling in the throat is gone. It acts in the throat—not the stomach. Harmless—good for children. A. L. Spofford, postmaster at Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. Three doses of One Minute Cough Cure, half an hour apart, speedily cured her. I can not praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done in our family." It always gives relief. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

TO OUR PATRONS.

Some weeks ago we sent notices to those of our patrons, who were in arrears for the Roundabout, as to the amount, and requesting settlement. We are glad to say that quite a large number of them have responded.

To those who are still in arrears we wish to give notice that we shall be compelled to stop their papers in the near future if they do not settle. Kindly bear this in mind and square up. tf.

TO THE TOBACCO RAISERS OF KENTUCKY.

Carlisle, Ky., Feb. 16, 1905.
Editor Mercury:

I see that you are interested in the tobacco raisers of the State, which will ever redound to your credit.

I beg of you a short space in your paper while I give to the farmers of Kentucky a few suggestions.

You truthfully said last week that the moneyed men of the East were the masters of the situation. Let me suggest a remedy for this—and nothing is simpler: Let a time be fixed, say March 1, 1905, for a convention to be held at Maysville, Ky., composed of one member from each county in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, North and South Carolina, and there and then form a corporation, composed of a President, to be elected by the delegates, and said members from said States be the directors, the main object of which is to manufacture all of the tobacco grown in said States, and let that be the capital.

The farmers of said States ought to buy their wheat, corn, oats, cattle, hogs and sheep from

Consumption

There is no specific for consumption. Fresh air, exercise, nourishing food and Scott's Emulsion will come pretty near curing it, if there is anything to build on. Millions of people throughout the world are living and in good health on one lung.

From time immemorial the doctors prescribed cod liver oil for consumption. Of course the patient could not take it in its old form, hence it did very little good. They can take and tolerate it for a long time. There is no oil, not excepting butter, so easily digested and absorbed by the system as cod liver oil in the form of Scott's Emulsion, and that is the reason it is so helpful in consumption where its use must be continuous.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain, —Mrs. GEORGE B. HALL, Jackson, Tenn. other States and turn their attention to the raising of tobacco—the reason of this is that you can buy cheaper than you can raise it.

Tobacco is King and these States can control the market of the world if they will simply follow out this plan.

OBITUARY.

On Saturday morning, February 11, death's angel again visited us and took from us our dear grandmother, Mrs. Sarah A. Your, the result of the infirmities of age. She was eighty-one years old and has been a dear, affectionate wife, faithful mother, true sister and loving grandmother. She was taken with a cold while on a visit to her daughter's in Frankfort, and was not able to be moved home. She has, for the last ten years, made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Crane. It seems that trouble for this family is growing. Only four months ago Mrs. Crane's only son was taken from her arms and now she must give up her faithful mother, who has clung to her in all her trials and troubles. She was a devout lady, a member of the Southern Presbyterian Church. She was beloved by all of her acquaintances. She leaves six daughters, one son, four sisters, one brother and a host of grandchildren and friends to mourn her untimely death.

The remains were laid to rest in the Frankfort cemetery.

We miss thee from our home, Granny.

We miss thee from thy place, A shadow o'er our life is cast.

We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss thy kind and willing hand,

Thy fond and earnest care, Our home is dark, Granny,

We miss thee everywhere. F.

Too late to cure a cold after consumption has fastened its deadly grip on the lungs. Take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup while yet there is time.

FINE CROP OF TOBACCO.

By a dispatch from Versailles to the Courier-Journal, February 16, we learn that: "Hon. W. L. Cannon, of near Midway, has just finished delivery to V. F. Zeigler, buyer for the American Tobacco Company, in this city, his crop of 47,775 pounds of tobacco, which he sold at an average of 14 cents per pound. This crop was produced on twenty-one acres of land, which is an average yield of 2,275 pounds per acre and an income per acre, for a single season, of $818.30—three times the estimated value of the land."

THE CAPITOL.

Oh! Capitol, a vexing question hast thou been. And for place, much legislation hast thou seen. Almost, since the first assembly was convened, To change you, by some, it best was deemed.

Until, it was settled by assembly of ninety-four, Which left it on the old ground, just as before; And to the commissioners they did declare, That they must build the new house, only there.

They sought o'er the land, everywhere. Until they found a plan, so large, They could not get it on the square, Thus have they fulfilled their charge.

And then the gubernatorial chair, To call, another assembly, did declare, To find a piece of other ground, To fit the plan, they had found. (To be continued some other time.) AMIGO.

REUNION KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY.

One of the most important movements in the history of Kentucky University was inaugurated Thursday night when it was decided to have a reunion of all old students, alumni and others, during commencement week in June.

The matter was discussed and decided upon at a meeting held at the residence of President Burris A. Jenkins, at which there were present Prof. T. B. McCartney, Prof. A. R. Milligan, Prof. Henry Lloyd, J. W. Porter, Enoch Grehan, President B. A. Jenkins, B. H. Calhoun, Prof. Milton Elliott and Judge Mat Walton.

The former students of Kentucky University, the direct successor of the oldest educational institution west of the Allegheny Mountains, are scattered all over the world, and the re-union planned is upon a scale of such magnitude that nothing like it has ever been seen in the South.

A committee will be appointed to communicate at once with prominent K. U. students in all parts of the country. State re-union committees will be organized and each State organization will work towards the end of interesting all University students in that State to come to the re-union. Fully three thousand people are expected.

BIG OUTDOOR DINNER.

The feature of the reunion will be a dinner held on the lawn at Gratz Park. Four prominent men will make addresses, among whom will be Rev. E. L. Powell, of Louisville.

Arrangements will also be made for the entertainment of visitors. Hundreds will be entertained as guests in the various homes of the city, while others will be taken care of at the hotels.

No definite arrangement has yet been made as to the details of this great undertaking, but it is the plan to have a compact and complete working organization. The presence here of three thousand former students will be of untold value to Lexington and the day will be an important one in the history of Kentucky University, as well as that of the city itself, as the old students to be thus brought together are men of distinction, occupying positions of trust, honor and influence in every walk of life, professional and private.

It is the desire of the organization to see the names of old students of the college in every State and country where they are known to be scattered, and those whose memory serve them correctly enough to recall such names and addresses are requested to communicate them. At present President Jenkins will be pleased to receive and take charge of such communications.

PUBLIC IS AROUSED.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 540 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time - worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boscche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Proof Like This in Frankfort.

Scores of Frankfort people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

L. G. Choate, proprietor of the Frankfort Planing Mill, residing at 426 St. Clair St., says: "In almost constant misery during the day and restless and sleepless at night from the dull aching across the small of my back and through the kidneys expresses my condition for some years. I also suffered a great deal from headaches and spells of dizziness, and often when I arose I was almost blind for a time. There was a difficulty with the kidney secretions which very frequently were very annoying and distressing. I doctored and used lots of medicine obtaining little or no benefit until Doan's Kidney Pills were so persistently recommended to me by a friend that I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box. I took them as directed and must say they helped me a great deal. My back feels better and stronger. I can rest better at night and the trouble with the kidney secretions was much relieved. As the result of Doan's Kidney Pills my condition is so much improved that I feel like a new man."

We feel and know your Christian soul
Has found its home with God.

ROMEO AND JULIET.

Simville's scenic and electric production of the immortal Bard's most beloved and popular play will be given in its entirety at Capital Theatre Thursday evening, March 2.

The plays of Shakespeare are the most widely read literary productions that have ever been written in the English tongue, or in any other tongue, the Bible alone excepted. If it were possible to collect a copy of each of the various editions that have been printed since Shakespeare's time, a large library could be made of them alone. His plays have been translated into the language of all civilized nations, and they have been printed and circulated in almost every conceivable fashion. His plays have been enacted in every land that has a stage, by actors of high and low degrees. Even the Japanese have played Romeo and Juliet, and a peculiar Romeo and Juliet it must have been in the land of harikari. These facts show the immense popularity of Shakespeare as a literary force, greater probably than that of all other writers combined.

Every college that even pretends to liberal culture has the plays in its course of study. Congressmen quote from Shakespeare in their speeches; lawyers repeat his sayings in summing up their cases; divines weave his good and wholesome advice into their sermons. Many business men and women read Shakespeare after a hard day's work, for relaxation and instruction. The vagrant, arraigned before the magistrate, holds up a well-thumbed volume, and tries to prove that he is respectable because he reads Shakespeare.

Why is Shakespeare every man's author? Why is there not the same interest attached to John Bunyan, or Marlowe, or the dozen other great writers of Shakespeare's time? Why do we read or see Shakespeare's plays at all?

It is because Shakespeare knew the human heart and soul as no other writer has known them; because he was not only a great writer, correct in form and artistic in expression, but also the greatest philosopher of all ages as well.

Those who are familiar with Shakespeare embrace at all times the opportunity to see any of his immortal plays. To those who are not it is a revelation, so far beyond the petty plays of modern dramatists from any and all points of view that there is no possible chance of comparison.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KING'S DAUGHTERS HOSPITAL AT FRANKFORT, KY.

Some years ago the ladies of the King's Daughters Circle undertook for their special work the care of the sick poor of the community.

The town was districted, and visiting committees were appointed to go into the homes of the sick to find out what was needed and to supply the needs to the best of their ability.

After two years of such work it was decided the best and most effectual way of accomplishing this would be to rent a small house and use it as a hospital.

This was a venture as the Circle had only three hundred ($300) dollars in the treasury.

A general canvass of the town was made and enough money raised to swell this amount to one thousand ($1,000) dollars.

A small house was rented at ten ($10) dollars per month and fitted up with odd pieces of old furniture, except the iron beds, which were purchased from the fund.

In July, on the sixteenth day, in the year 1896, the hospital was opened with a reception to the public. The work is being carried on in the same building still. At first a man and his wife were employed to take charge, but they had no special qualifications for the work, but it was soon found necessary to employ a regular graduate nurse at thirty ($30) dollars per month, an assistant, some young girl anxious to gain a little experience before entering a regular training school. We were able to get such an one for eight ($8) dollars per month. A cook at ($10) per month and a house man at eight ($8) dollars per month.

The hospital can only accommodate seven patients. The one room down stairs is ten ($10) dollars per week, an upstairs room seven dollars per week if only one is in a room, if more than one, five ($5) dollars each. Pay patients, beside their hospital charges, pay for their medicines and their doctors' bills; all other patients, and by far the greater number, are charity patients. The charity patients are furnished with medical attention, all necessary drugs, board and washing free of charge.

The doctors of this city give their services to the hospital, each serving on call. The average expense for each patient was fourteen ($14.29) dollars and twenty-nine cents.

The county patients averaged being in the hospital twenty three days each, which made the county pay us at the rate of sixty-two cents per day for each patient.

Each city patient averaged ten days in the hospital, which made the city pay at the rate of one ($1.43) dollars and forty-three cents per day for each patient.

When you realize that this includes everything furnished the patients, you will see how inadequate the appropriations are.

There was one county patient whose individual drug bill for one month was twenty-five ($25) dollars. He was there three months. This does not include anything done for the patient who have incurable contagious diseases such as cancer and consumption, in their homes; nor for the colored people.

This is also a part of the Circle's work and coal, medicines, provisions, as well as in many cases, private nurses, have been provided.

And now, just a word about the new hospital movement: In the fall of 1903 it was decided by the Circle that the work had entirely outgrown the present limits. As grand as the results have been so far, working under so many disadvantages, in a cramped building without an operating room or any of the modern appliances that are necessary to the proper maintenance of hospital work, a wide field lays before us.

lars per year and the city, three hundred ($300) dollars per year, paying by the month. The revenue from pay patients is very small, the rest of the money is raised by the efforts of the King's Daughters, in giving entertainments, etc. The King's Daughters have never found it necessary to canvass the town or ask for contributions from the public but once since the hospital opened.

That was in the early part of 1900 during the time of the political excitement, when it was impossible in Frankfort to give an entertainment of any kind.

Our bills have always been met promptly and the Circle has never been one cent in debt at any time. That you may better understand, note the following report for the past year:

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1904 OF KING'S DAUGHTERS HOSPITAL.
Number of pay patients	13
Number of county charity patients	21
Number of city charity patients	21
Total	55

Receipts from pay patients	$257 10
Receipts from county	300 00
Receipts from city	300 00

Total receipts	$857 10
Total expense account for year	$2,255 69
Less	$57 10

Balance to be raised by Circle	$1,455 69
Average expense per month	$188 00

The city and county each having contributed three hundred ($300) dollars, and each having had twenty-five patients, the average expense for each patient was fourteen ($14.29) dollars and twenty-nine cents.

The county patients averaged being in the hospital twenty three days each, which made the county pay us at the rate of sixty-two cents per day for each patient.

Each city patient averaged ten days in the hospital, which made the city pay at the rate of one ($1.43) dollars and forty-three cents per day for each patient.

When you realize that this includes everything furnished the patients, you will see how inadequate the appropriations are.

There was one county patient whose individual drug bill for one month was twenty-five ($25) dollars. He was there three months. This does not include anything done for the patient who have incurable contagious diseases such as cancer and consumption, in their homes; nor for the colored people.

This is also a part of the Circle's work and coal, medicines, provisions, as well as in many cases, private nurses, have been provided.

And now, just a word about the new hospital movement: In the fall of 1903 it was decided by the Circle that the work had entirely outgrown the present limits.

As grand as the results have been so far, working under so many disadvantages, in a cramped building without an operating room or any of the modern appliances that are necessary to the proper maintenance of hospital work, a wide field lays before us.

It had been demonstrated to the public that a hospital was a necessity, and could be successfully maintained in Frankfort. Acting upon the advice of the advisory board, consisting of six business men, it was decided to build and equip a small but modern up-to-date hospital, with all the necessary appliances and conveniences. This building is already under headway and we hope to complete it in the early spring as soon as the weather will permit.

The total cost of the lot, completed building and the necessary equipment will be nine thousand dollars. Over five thousand has been raised in cash and one thousand dollars more is promised as soon as we raise the remaining twenty-five hundred; this we confidently hope to do by the time the building is completed. This money with the exception of a few hundred raised by the Circle in giving entertainments, has all been raised by private subscription.

The new building will accommodate four patients. Rooms for four pay patients and two charity wards of five beds each. A model operating room, preparation room, nurses room, bath, three bath rooms, dining room, kitchen, laundry, furnace room, store room, halls, etc.

At many times since the hospital was opened, nine years ago, the prospect has seemed very discouraging, and we have been ready almost to give up hope, but we have patiently persevered "in His name," and the outcome has been far more successful than we have ever dared to hope.

TARKINGTON'S NEW BOOK.

Booth Tarkington, it will be remembered, was a short time ago elected a member of the Indiana Legislature, and during the last year there have been appearing in the monthly magazines stories by him, written out of his political experiences, dealing chiefly with political characters and political situations in a small Middle West community. These political stories have been collected, and will be published by McClure-Phillips in book form, the latter part of January under the title of "In the Arena." The simple Hoosier people and the humorous and pathetic figures that rise out of the rural population into political prominence are sympathetically shown in Mr. Tarkington's stories. He touches the life with somewhat the same mixture of humor, satire and pathos that Mr. Ade has exhibited in his recent rural comedies.

THE ROUNDABOUTS DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE, EDUCATION, HISTORY.

An Epoch in History.

History, says a writer, in its simpler form, is but the story of those whose lives exerted so marked an influence upon their times that they should be recorded for the instruction of mankind. And the school child in Franklin county, should be able to understand distinctly the formation of his State and country, also to name the principle events connected therewith, and to be thoroughly conversant with governmental, legislative, judicial and educational data. But is he? Let me speak in the interest of the school children! Moses, the lawgiver, commanded the Israelites to teach the children, and they were thus to grow up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. The Chinese, though relegated to ranks of heathenism, in our wise estimation, teach their children customs, manners and traditions. The Mexicans and Indians do likewise, the children of these wild, uncivilized tribes being familiar with nature's phases, the trees of the forest, birds' haunts and habits, transcending the laws of tribal descent, having courage of conviction and race pedigree, and yet we Southern women—whose history far surpasses in its pathos and its tragedy the liad of the immortal Greek—are resting secure and content allowing our children to grow up in entire ignorance of Southern literature, States rights, and without any knowledge of the causes for the Civil war.

If we could go into the slums and manufacturing districts of our great American cities we would be astonished and horrified at the swarms of human beings leveled to the plane of animals—a foreign element outside the pale of law—defying man, outraging God—without patriotism and without a country, but these have an influence which shall become a dominant factor in the cycle of another decade. Who, then, shall be "hewers of wood and drawers of water?"

Our children, or theirs? Ignorance and anarchy vs. patriotism and education is a stupendous question confronting the parents of this enlightened Commonwealth.

"It is related of a patriotic French gentleman that when he sought to impress on a nephew a sense of his duty to his country, the young man turned upon him with the question:

"Uncle, what is my country?"

He replied: "It is the sky above you, the sun that gives you light, the winds that fan your cheek, the recurring seasons—all that combines to make a genial and salubrious climate; it is not alone that earth beneath your feet which is circumscribed by the boundary lines of the kingdom, with its hills and vales and streams, its forests and fields, but its toiling and directing and achieving millions, and their homes in the districts and the cities; the government that administers the laws and the army and navy that protect you; it is your food and drink and raiment; it is you father and mother who have reared you and made you what you are; it is all who love you; it is the glorious memory of our ancestors—men and women who for two thousand years have been making our beautiful France what she is, the pride of her people and the wonder of the nations. All these, and more, are your country; and the noble soul will hold them sacred in thought and give them lasting love and unshaken allegiance."

Franklin county is distinguished for having the State Capitol, which now promises to be one of the finest in the United States. The county was formed in 1794, and bears the name of the philosopher and statesman, Benjamin Franklin. Frankfort, the seat of justice and the capitol, is picturesquely situated on the Kentucky river, about sixty-six miles above its mouth. It is claimed that its name was attained in consequence of a skirmish that occurred on the spot where the town now stands, between a band of Indians and William Bryant, Nicholas Tomlin, Ellison Williams, Stephen Frank and others. Frank was killed in the fight, and to perpetuate his memory the place was called Frankfort.

The tall monumental shaft in the beautiful cemetery is well worth noticed from an historic view, for the names inscribed upon its surface tell of valor and victories won, but the epoch worthy to be commemorated in the annals of the future historian is this: Commensurate with bog and hominy shot and shell, "The first Constitution, adopted in convention at Danville, April 19, 1792, required the General Assembly to meet at Lexington on June 4, 1792, and provided the following mode for fixing the seat of government. The House, during the sessions in 1792, should choose by ballot twenty-one persons, from whom the representatives from Mercer and Fayette counties should alternately strike one, until the twenty-one should be reduced to five, who, or any three of them concurring, should have power to fix on the place for the seat of government, to receive grants from individuals therefor, and to make such conditions with the proprietors of the land as to them should seem right, and should be agreed to by the proprietor, and lay off a town thereon in such manner as they should judge most proper. Accordingly, on June 18, 1792, John Allen, and John Edwards of Bourbon county, Robert Todd, of Fayette, Henry Lee, of Mason, and Thomas Kennedy, of Madison, were chosen commissioners. During the summer and fall ensuing, they visited the several points which made proposals—Legerwood Bend, Delaney's Ferry, Petersburg, Louisville, Lexington, Frankfort and Leestown (one mile below Frankfort), canvassed them thoroughly, and on December 5, in session at Lexington, resolved that "Frankfort was the most proper place for the seat of government." John Edwards was absent, two of the board (Robert Todd being one) were in favor of Lexington, and two of Frankfort. Gen Todd, although largely interested as the owner of much land near Lexington, and a resident there, rather than have it said that his judgment was biased by interest, changed his vote and gave to Frankfort the three votes necessary. December 8, the report of the committee was approved by the Legislature and the question settled.

The proposition which induced this location was:

- 1st. By Andrew Holmes, to convey the government; (a) for seven years the house and tenement lately occupied by Gen. James Wilkinson; (b) absolutely, the lots marked Public Ground, Nos. 68, 59, 68, 74, 75, 79, 83 and 84; (c) choice of thirty lots yet unsold, on alternate choice of half of all the unsold (74) lots, and if more space is requisite, will lay off into half-acre lots fifty acres more and convey one-half of them; (d) the rents of warehouse for seven years; (e) ten boxes 10x12 window glass, 1,500 pounds nails, 60 lbs. (\$106 $\frac{1}{2}$) worth of locks and hinges, and an equivalent of stone and scantling for building, all delivered upon the Public Ground, or in place of the latter, stone that will build 1,500 perches of wall in any part of Frankfort, and the use of his sawmill, carriage, wagon, and two good horses until a sufficiency of scantling for a State House is procured, and the privilege of timber from any part of his tract.

2d. The bond, dated August 9, 1792, of eight citizens of Frankfort—Harry Innes, Nat Sanders, Bennett Pemberton, Benjamin Craig, Jere Craig, William Haydon, Daniel James and Giles Sandel—to pay the commissioners $8,000 in species (gold or silver.)

"For innocence of conception, freshness of arrangement, and God-like justice in continuity and sequence, this body of men stand equally with the framers of the declaration of independence. Let us teach the children this epoch in our State's immortal history, and feel the pride in State and county commensurate with its glory."

"THE IRISH PAWN-BROKERS."

Joe W. Spears, Comedian, presenting that ever popular success, "The Irish Pawnbrokers," is booked for Capital Theatre, Tuesday, February 28. This is its fourth successful season and a brand new fourth edition of the big funmaker is promised, in which a consistent story is told abounding in many amusing complications, and mirth provoking situations. This new edition is the work of that popular young farce writer, Mr. Edgar Selden, whose successes have been many. In the new edition of "The Irish Pawnbrokers" Mr. Selden is said to have done the best work of his career. The company numbers twenty-five people, headed by that incomparable trio, Wesley and Mack and Mazie Trumbull, well and favorably known as the farce comedy star triumvirate. They are ably assisted by such clever artists as Carver & Pollard, The Columbian Comedy Four, a quartette of sweet singers, John Clyde, Elmer McConaha, Winnifred Stewart, Clara Sherwood, Marie Heer, Ida Carney, Chas. H. Dell, Walter Kelly, Chas. Witbrook, Frank J. Ahearn and a beauty chorus.

Manager Spears has spared no expense in producing this his fourth edition. An entire new scenic outfit has been provided so that now he carries every stick of scenery used in the production. The costuming is said to be a marvel of the modiste's art. Special attention has also been paid to the musical numbers, Mr. Selden having written several new ones especially for the production. In addition to this all the recent successes will be found.
